Each filmstrip a complete, authentic unit. 45 frames in full color. Ready for immediate use; teaching guide suggests lesson plans, questions and answers, things to do. For grades 5-8.

In these trying times, George Washington frequently prayed for strength to lead his heroic men to final victory.

"THE WINTER AT VALLEY FORGE"

(Washington's Birthday, February 22)

Shows and tells why George Washington was so loved and respected by his soldiers; cause of the Revolutionary War; the new government.

This filmstrip, in words and pictures, makes an outstanding event in history come alive for your pupils. Excellent for any class program to celebrate Washington's Birthday. Ideal in history and social studies courses to dramatize the importance of Valley Forge as one of the landmarks of freedom. No. F245-2, with teaching guide, postpaid, $6.50.

They also remembered young Abe's eagerness to learn. He spent long hours studying books on law.

"LINCOLN AND DOUGLAS"

(Lincoln's Birthday, February 12)

How Abraham Lincoln became a national figure; his election to the presidency; shows the fast-moving progress of our nation in those early years.

This filmstrip is a complete teaching unit in itself. Wonderful program material for Lincoln's Birthday, and for history and social study units relating to the issues that caused the Civil War. Refers to items about Lincoln which will appear as "current events" during February. No. F245-15, with teaching guide, postpaid, $6.50.
